Gospel Reading (Fourteenth Sunday) Year A (Matthew 11:25-30)

Jesus exclaimed, 'At that time Jesus exclaimed: "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones. Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will.

All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him."

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

“Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created and you shall renew the face of the earth. Dear Parishioners,

Hope all of you are well and safe. I am Fr. Tom Thomas (Rosminian Priest), a part time student at St. Mary's, Twickenham. I hope to be with you for some time. We open for weekend Masses from the 4th July Saturday and Sunday and daily Masses as usual. I recommend everybody to come with your own face masks. Inside the church, we have allocated designated places to sit with a 2m distance. When visiting the church, please be mindful of the all the governmental health regulations.

If you desire confession, please make prior appointment with Fr. Tom. I take this opportunity to thank all the parish volunteers who stand in as stewards and cleaners for all of our health and safety.

Masses are offered daily for all of your intentions every day at 9.30am at St. Theresa's. If you have any private intentions let the parish office know. I very much hope to meet you all soon. God bless all and stay safe.
Fr. Tom

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

No one is necessary to the Divine Redeemer for the glorification of His Church, that is, for redeeming mankind from the slavery of sin, in His mercy, freely bestowed, does He choose from among the redeemed those whom he pleases to raise to such an honour; and even for the greatest works he uses what is weak and contemptible in the eyes of the world.

Antonio Rosmini.
